Celebrity designers as well as top models from New York and Japan will be present as well as more than 25 members of the national and international fashion press.

Further revenue and attendance-generating activities will include beauty bars, automotive displays and cocktail bars.

There will also be an event with local designers pitching to investors and business executives for a chance at a consulting and investment package, fostering local entrepreneurship.

The fashion shows are free and open to the public with seating on a first-come, first-served basis. Reserved seating starts at $20.
